Re: European Federation of Nurses' Associations (EFN) Warm Wishes of Thanks on International Nurses Day

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the EFN Executive Committee, we wish to extend our warm wishes to all our EFN Members on this special day for nurses globally.

It is a wonderful opportunity for us as EFN Members, to reflect on all the incredible work that we collectively achieved in partnership and collaboration to strategically shape the nursing profession across Europe for the best outcome for our citizens.

Nursing in 2018 is a modern and dynamic profession with an extensive scope of practice which has proven to be effective, efficient and safe. The EFN has played a central role in evolving and enhancing the profession for over 45 years and its influence and strength is thanks to you all.

On this International Nurses' Day, we want to say thank you to you all as our EFN Members for dedicating your time, innovation, expertise and professionalism that have contributed to the many achievements of EFN. Together we can continue to make a real difference and we look forward to continuing to work with you and achieving all our aspirations and goals as a collective force for all nurses.

Wishing you all the very best on your special day.

With sincere thanks,

Elizabeth Adams
